

Morningtide Capital Partners Pte. Ltd.

Call for Analyst

About the Company

Morningtide Capital Partners (MTCP) is a boutique investment house that helps privately held Small, Medium, and Large Enterprises (SMLEs) from various sectors prepare themselves for growth. MTCP brings expertise in financial competency, capital raising through financial modeling, monitoring, valuation, accounting, and strategic financial advisory to SMLEs so that they can achieve optimal growth.

MTCP's partners have extensive experience working in different industries. Its clients come from a variety of industries, including Manufacturing, Retail, E-commerce, Pharmaceuticals, Transportation, Energy, Cosmetics, Construction, Microfinance, Food & Beverage, and more.

Position Available

MTCP is looking for Analyst to assist in the overall operations of the firm.

General Description

The Analyst is expected to assist in the entire deal flow process that includes client onboarding, data gathering and coordination, reporting and presentation of work conducted covering research, financial modeling, and writing work for investment purposes. He/She is expected to learn and build financial models, craft company and industry reports, coordinate in project management, and conduct administrative tasks as deemed necessary. He/She is expected to coordinate with the internal team and clients on the tasks assigned. The Analyst directly reports to the Partner of the firm in charge of the client account.

General Qualifications

- Preferably an undergraduate degree in business, finance, economics, or related field of study. However, those with a degree in other disciplines are encouraged to apply
- Intense desire and willingness to learn
- Proficiency in MS Office Applications (Excel, Powerpoint, and Word)
- Professional Fluency in English and Tagalog
- Able to comfortably do site visits, client coordination, internal and external reporting

Terms

Full time engagement with 6 month probationary period from date of signing.

How to Apply?

Send the following to sevastian@morningtidecapital.com (cc: andrei@morningtidecapital.com) with the subject of "[Application] Position Applied":

- Latest CV or Resume (without photo)
- Cover Letter

The firm conducts a two-stage interview process done with a partner of the firm and the direct supervisor of the position applied for. This will be scheduled if the applicant meets the criteria for evaluation.